1. Purpose

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is made and entered into by and between The Centre for Research and Innovation (CRI) at The Bharath Social and Research Foundation (TBSRF) and (Name of the Institution), hereinafter referred to as the "Parties," to establish a collaboration for promoting academic excellence, research innovation, and professional development through joint initiatives and activities.

2. Background

The Bharath Social and Research Foundation (TBSRF) has launched the Centre for Research and Innovation (CRI) with a mission to support the research community in transforming business ideas into successful commercial or social ventures. The Centre also publishes Gold Open Access research journals (CRI Journals) in diverse fields, including Engineering, Science, Humanities, Social Sciences, Management, and Commerce.

The TBSRF invites Kanodia College, Jaipur to explore the possibility of jointly organizing academic and professional development initiatives to foster an enriching academic environment and promote the exchange of knowledge and research output.

3. Scope of Collaboration

The collaboration between the Parties will focus on the following initiatives, which can be organized either online or offline, as agreed upon by both Parties:

3.1 Webinars

Organizing webinars to create an enriching learning environment accessible to a global audience. Topics will focus on emerging trends, research methodologies, and industry advancements relevant to the fields of Engineering, Science, Humanities, Social Sciences, Management, and Commerce.

3.2 Workshops

Conducting hands-on workshops aimed at enhancing the practical knowledge of participants. These workshops will cover various academic and industry-relevant topics that help build skills and address current challenges in research and innovation.

3.3 Faculty Development Programmes (FDP)

Co-hosting FDPs designed to empower faculty members with innovative pedagogical techniques, leadership skills, and expertise in their respective subjects. These programs will aim to improve the teaching and research capabilities of faculty members, ensuring the highest quality of education delivery.

3.4 Conferences

Collaborating on organizing academic conferences that will provide a platform for researchers, academicians, and students to present their research, engage in discussions, and build networks for future collaboration in the fields of Engineering, Science, Humanities, Social Sciences, Management, and Commerce.

4. Roles and Responsibilities of the Parties

4.1 The Centre for Research and Innovation (CRI)

- a. Lead the organization and management of the proposed activities in coordination with Name of the Institution.
- b. Provide the necessary resources, including facilitators, subject matter experts, and online platforms for hosting webinars and workshops.
- c. Publish and promote research papers, reports, and proceedings from the conferences.

4.2 Name of the Institution

- a. Participate in the organization and execution of the proposed initiatives, ensuring the involvement of faculty members and students.
- b. Contribute to the development and delivery of content for webinars, workshops, FDPs, and conferences.
- c. Provide logistical support, including venue arrangements (for offline events), marketing, and participant coordination.

5. Duration

This MOU shall remain in effect for a period of three years from the date of signing unless terminated earlier by mutual agreement. The collaboration may be renewed by both Parties upon review of the outcomes and successes of the joint initiatives.

6. Funding and Financial Arrangements

Each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses for activities under this MOU, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by both Parties. Any shared financial commitments shall be detailed in a separate agreement, if applicable.

7. Confidentiality

The Parties agree to maintain confidentiality regarding any sensitive or proprietary information exchanged during this collaboration. Such information shall not be disclosed to any third party without prior written consent, except as required by law.

8. Dispute Resolution

In the event of any disagreement or dispute arising out of this MOU, the Parties agree to resolve the matter through informal discussions or, if necessary, through mediation before seeking legal remedies.

9. Amendment

This MOU may be amended or modified by mutual written consent of both Parties.

10. Termination

Either Party may terminate this MOU by providing 30 days written notice to the other Party. Upon termination, both Parties shall complete any ongoing activities or initiatives in progress at the time of termination.

11. Signatures
